Registration Open for Madison Homes' Real Towns in Vaughan

October 20, 2016 1:00 pm | by Jack Landau | 0 Comments \(/news/2016/10/registration-open-madison-homes-real-towns-vaughan#disqus\_thread\)

While townhomes and single-family homes remain in very short supply in central Toronto, low-rise developments are still the dominant form of housing in the GTA's suburban communities. One of the newest developments aiming to meet this demand is Madison Homes (<http://urbantoronto.ca/database/profiles/madison-homes/>), Real Towns (<http://urbantoronto.ca/database/projects/real-towns/>), a 12-block townhome development coming to the Bathurst Street and Rutherford Road area of Thornhill in Vaughan, now in its registration phase.

Real Towns is offering 79 three-storey townhome units, featuring multiple different contemporary designs by Flanagan Beresford Patteson Architects (<http://urbantoronto.ca/database/profiles/flanagan-beresford-patteson-architects/>). Warm materials like brick, wood, and stone will play off of the modern architecture of the nearby Joseph & Wolf Lebovic Jewish Community Campus, while the three-storey massing will adhere to the traditional built form of the surrounding low-rise subdivision developments.

Ranging in size from a roomy 2,168 ft<sup>2</sup> to even more spacious 2,730 ft<sup>2</sup> layouts, and priced from the $900,000s, Real Towns' 79 homes are offered with either three or four-bedrooms, and include private backyards and ceiling heights up to 10 feet. With registration for the project now underway, more information about the development is expected to be revealed as marketing material for Real Towns continues to roll out.
