Madison Homes launching REALtowns this fall in Thornhill

SPONSORED Sep 13, 2016

Madison Homes is serving innovative design realness with their latest infill community in Thornhill, Vaughan. REALtowns, a collection of 79 contemporary-styled townhomes, will be released this fall at the corner of Lebovic Campus Drive and Ilan Ramon Boulevard.

REALtowns will offer three or four bedroom floorplans, spread over three levels plus a basement. With 2,168 to 2,730 square feet of living space, each townhome boasts a private backyard and front-drive garage. Madison Homes provides alternate floorplans for homeowners wishing to customize their townhome with added bedrooms, a home office, study space or entertaining area. Prices start from the $900,000s.

Interiors will be characterized by grand, 10 foot ceilings on the main floor and 9 foot ceilings on the ground and upper levels. There is oak hardwood flooring on the main floor, with oak stairs throughout. Designer-inspired kitchens feature granite or silestone countertops, and living areas are appointed with high-quality finishes selected at Madison Homes' Design Studio. A wide selection of standard and upgrade options are available, allowing buyers to design a space that suits their lifestyle.

The area surrounding REALtowns is a hub of educational, recreational, health and social activity. The Joseph & Wolf Lebovic Community Campus, located directly to the east of this enclave, offers amenities such as a theatre/lecture hall, children's education centre, café and food court, banquet place, arts discovery centre and a health and wellness centre.

The Schwartz/Reisman Community Centre, a 100,000 square foot facility on the grounds of the Lebovic Community Campus, features an aquatic centre and outdoor pool. The nearby Rutherford Marketplace is home to Longo's, Shoppers Drug Mart, Duff's Famous Wings, major banks and more. There are also nearby gardens, parkettes and recreational trails. The area is well-served by York Region transit, and Highways 7 and 407 are just a five minute drive away.
