September 9, 2016 2:40 pm | by Jack Landau | 2 Comments

A short distance northwest of the Bathurst and Rutherford Road area of Thornhill in Vaughan, Madison Homes is now marketing a new modern townhome development at the intersection of Ilan Ramon Boulevard and Lebovic Campus Drive. The new project dubbed 'Real Towns' will feature 79 three-storey townhome units spread across 12 blocks, and is now taking registrations.

A contemporary design by Flanagan Beresford Patteson Architects aims to serve as an aesthetic bridge between the modern architecture of the adjacent Joseph & Wolf Lebovic Jewish Community Campus and the more traditional townhome subdivisions that surround the site and Campus. Different combinations using a palette of natural materials like brick, stone, and wood will create some variety among the 12 blocks of towns.

The development's 79 units are available in 3 and 4 bedroom layouts, with sizes ranging from 2,168 ft² to 2,730 ft² and prices starting in the $900,000s. While high-rise projects like Madison's eponymous twin-tower condo near Yonge and Eglinton tend to offer lavish amenity offerings, Real Towns' private backyards cater to a different lifestyles like growing families.
